State DSS Moving Willimantic Office to 1320 Main Street

The Connecticut Department of Social Services is re-locating its Willimantic field office to 1320 Main Street, Tyler Square, on Monday, January 29.

The new office, with upgraded service areas and ample parking, is about a mile west on Main Street from the agency's long-time site. More information is available at www.ct.gov/dss/fieldoffices (scroll down to Willimantic).

While customers can visit any of 12 DSS field offices statewide, the agency also offers the option of accessing application, benefit accounts and other services online at www.ct.gov/dss and www.connect.ct.gov.

DSS is Connecticut's multi-faceted health and human services agency, supporting the basic needs of eligible children, families, older and other adults, including persons with disabilities. The agency provides federal/state food and financial aid, health care coverage, social work, child support and other vital services.
